N. B. The preceding Work was first translated from the Portuguese by Order of, and printed for the Royal Society of London in 1669.
And as Lord Brouncker, Sir Isaac Newton, Doctor Barrow, Dr.
Wallis, Mr. Gregory, Doctor Halley, and other learned Men, were Members of the Royal Society at that Time, no Doubt can be made of its Authenticity. The above Work being very scarce, it was judged that a new Edition of it would be very acceptable to the Public; and the more so, as a late Traveller arrogates to himself the unique Merit of discovering the Head of the Nile. And takes uncommon

uncommon Pains to make his Readers believe that no other Person had ever arrived at the so much famed Sources. But it is very remarkable, that this modern Traveller's Account of these celebrated Fountains, are nearly in the very Words of this Old Work; the Inference is obvious; to this Edition is prefixed a new Preface.

The First Forty-five Years

O F

The LIFE of JAMES LACKINGTON,

The present Bookseller in Chiswell-street, Moorfields, London.

Written by himself.

---

“ Honour and shame from no condition rise ;
“ As well your part, there all the honour lies.
“ Fortune in men has some small difference made,
“ One flaunts in rags, one tumbles in brocade ;
“ The cobbler apron'd, and the parson gown'd,
“ The friar hooded, and the monarch crown'd.
“ What differ more (you cry) than crown and cowl ?
“ I'll tell you, friend—a wise man and a fool.
“ You'll find if once the monarch acts the monk,
“ Or, cobbler-like, the parson will be drunk ;
“ Worth makes the man, and want of it the fellow :
“ The rest is all but leather or prunella.”

POPE.

“ Let high birth triumph ! what can be more great ?
“ Nothing—but merit in a low estate.

---

“ ——— such the vanity of great and small,
“ Contempt goes round, and all men laugh at all.”

YOUNG.
